Step In Time

Heels reach new importance in a variety of heel shapes and heights. While there is no combination that takes the lead, just remember a rule of thumb might be the broader the toe, the lower the heel.

Foothill radio plans holiday program

A special program will be broadcast on Memorial Day by KFJC, Foothill College's FM station.

The program will run from 7:30 to 10:15 p.m. and will be a review of spring semester programs. The station broadcasts at 89.7 on the FM band.

Approximately 10 to 15 minutes will be given to students who have had regular weekly programs during the school year. Purpose of the broadcast is to provide graduating staff members an opportunity to "sign off" to their radio listeners.

This is the last broadcast for the student FM station until next fall.

Storm knocks Iceman off KFJC airwaves

The Iceman will not cometh to Foothill College tonight.

The college's radio station, KFJC-FM, was scheduled to resume broadcasting at 9:30 tonight with a faculty discussion of the Eugene O'Neill play, "The Iceman Cometh."

But the heavy storm over the weekend knocked down the station's transmitter on Skyline Boulevard, and postponed the beginning of broadcasting indefinitely.

The play will be seen on KTVU, Channel 2, at 10:30 tonight, as scheduled.
