College Station Due In May

3186
"This is KFJC, Foothill College Radio in Mountain View, serving the greater mid-peninsula area."

This will be one of the station breaks used by Foothill College's new FM station when it takes to the air in May, Bob Ballou, station manager, announced today.

According to Ballou, over four thousand dollars worth of equipment has been ordered for the station. Some of this equipment has arrived on the campus and will be used by the broadcasting class for practice until the station goes on the air.
