Mimes to perform

The celebrated mimes Robert Shields and Lorene Yarnel will appear in an exclusive Bay Area engagement at Flint Center in Cupertino Friday, January 5, at 8 p.m., and Saturday, January 6, at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. The performance is sponsored by the Foothill student body. Tickets are available through Flint Center Box Office and major ticket outlets at $9.50, $8.50, and $7.50 ($1 less for the Saturday matinee).

Youth honored

The United Nations Year of the Child is being commemorated at Foothill by three campus exhibits.

A children's literature exhibit, by English instructor Bernice Zelditch, is on display in the Language Arts Office.

Any old clothes?

The Foothill Drama Department is in need of authentic western clothing for its play, THE RAINMAKER. The play is set in the 1920's southwest during the drought. Any donations or loans of clothing, boots, or hats should look used and "salty", according to Foothill drama instructor Jack Ford.

Information on making donations or loans can be obtained by calling the Fine Arts office at 948-8590 ext. 262 or through Jack Ford, the director, at 948-8590 ext. 272.

'People Pleasers' to speak

Actor Tony Randall, author George Plimpton, consumer ombudsman David Horowitz and TV producer Garry Marshall will headline an upcoming "People Pleasers" lecture program at De Anza College in Cupertino.

Horowitz will kick off the series at 8 p.m. January 18 at Flint Center. The other speakers also will appear at 8 p.m. at Flint Center. Plimpton is scheduled for Feb 1; Randall, March 12; and Marshall, March 19.

The lecture series is sponsored by De Anza's short courses office, which presents a variety of non-credit, self-supporting courses throughout the year.

For a pre-registration form for the "People Pleasers" series, persons may call De Anza's short courses office, 996-4673.

Series tickets for all four lectures are $15 per person or $28 for two persons. Single tickets may be purchased at the door for $4.50 if space is available. There will be no single lecture tickets available in advance.

In his January 18 talk, Horowitz, a champion of the consumer, will discuss consumer information and legal rights. Currently, he appears on his highly popular weekly television show, "David Horowitz/Consumer Buyline." He has won the Emmy award from the television industry for his consumer reporting.

George Plimpton, author, journalist, sportsman and adventurer, is unlike most writers who merely witness and report on what people are doing. Plimpton played with the New York Philharmonic under Leonard Bernstein, played last-string quarterback for the Detroit Lions and much more. The author of "The Paper Lion," he is a graduate of Harvard and Cambridge universities.

Co-star of the highly popular TV show "The Odd Couple," Tony Randall began his career in radio. After appearing in a variety of shows, television discovered him and he shot to national prominence as Harvey Weskit on "Mr. Peepers." He has appeared in numerous motion pictures and on Broadway as well as a frequent TV talk show guest.

Garry Marshall is the creator/producer of several hit television series—"Happy Days," "Laverne and Shirley," "The Odd Couple" and "Mork and Mindy." His lecture includes outtakes and blooper reels from his shows.

'Cabaret' to open L'ACT rep season

The Los Altos Conservatory Theatre will open its Winter/Spring repertory season Thursday, January 4, with the musical play "Cabaret" starring Toni Tomei as singer Sally Bowles.

Under the direction of Foothill drama instructor Doyné Mraz, "Cabaret" will be performed at 8 p.m. January 4-7, 11-12, 14, 19-21, and 28, as well as February 1, 9, 16, 22, and March 3, 10, and 16. The curtain will go up each night at the L'ACT Theatre at 97 Hillview Avenue, adjoining the Los Altos Civic Center on San Antonio Road.

"Cabaret" is set in Berlin in 1929, as the Third Reich is rapidly gaining power and the city is struggling to maintain at least a veneer of carefree gaiety.

Clifford Bradshaw, an American writer to be played by Roger Graves, arrives in Berlin in search of inspiration for a second novel. On New Years Eve, at his landlady's urging, he leaves his typewriter for the Kit Kat Club, a deliciously decadent night spot where the Master of Ceremonies, to be played by Mark Sarto, introduces him to a disarming chorus of girls and their star, Sally.

Toni Tomei, who will star as Sally, is a veteran of many Foothill College Summer Repertory productions which were directed by Mraz. Trained at the Neighborhood Playhouse in New York, she starred as Eileen in "My Sister Eileen" and as Gigi's mother in "Gigi" among other roles at Foothill.

Roger Graves comes to the role of Cliff with a performance as Peter in "Jesus Christ Superstar" at Foothill College to his credit. Master of Ceremonies Mark Sarto played Bobbie in "The Boyfriend" for L'ACT last season.

In supporting roles, Linda Piccone, also a Summer Repertory and Palo Alto Theatreworks veteran, will play Fraulein Schneider, Cliff's landlady, and Harvey Friedland, who has appeared in many community theatre and L'ACT shows, will play Herr Schultz, who courts her.

James David will play Ernst Ludwig, Cliff's friend who appears to be working for the Nazis. Ronald Leland Sanborn will play the Customs Officer; Joan Hunt Burdick, who also will stage the musical numbers, will be the prostitute Fraulein Kost; Jennifer Brumbaum will be the Telephone Girl; Rudolf Vest will be the Kit Kat Club owner Max.

A cast of fifteen other men and women will dance and sing as Kit Kat Club girls and Club customers, waiters, and sailors.

Billie Rue Testa will be musical director and Dr. Harlan Smith and Gary Kingston will compose an orchestra of piano and percussion.

Costumes will be designed by Andrea Maue, settings by Baron Sarto, and lights by Jane Sanders.

Tickets for "Cabaret" are available by calling 941-LACT or by going directly to the Los Altos Chamber of Commerce on University Avenue. Single tickets are $4.50 or $4 for senior citizens and students. Season tickets, which include performances of "Cabaret," "The Lion in Winter," "God's Favorite," "Fallen Angels," and "The Little Foxes," are still available at $20.

Students get involved

By MARK JOHNSON

ASFC Vice-President of Activities Chip Tarrice is organizing an activities board that will give students who attend the board's meetings a chance to help plan Foothill College's extra-curricular activities for this year. Six official positions are open on the board: Rally Director, Intramurals Director, Student Athletic Director, Assistant to Activities, Publicity Director, and Assistant to the Social Affairs Director.

Tarrice said the board will be set up so that everyone can take part in the planning and carrying out of the concerts, dances, and other activities that were, until now, planned by only a select few.

Everyone who would like to see their kind of activities on campus this year is invited to attend the board's first meeting on Tuesday, January 23, 2-4 p.m. in C-31. The board will also meet every other Tuesday following the first meeting for those who miss the first meeting. "Now's the time students can stand up and really get noticed," Tarrice said.

Fool on the Hill

By MARK JOHNSON

THE WINTER QUARTER! AAAAARRRRRRGGHH!

All that foul smelling stuff that was hanging over your head last quarter is back to haunt you once again: the required classes that you tried to put off as long as possible, the parking tickets you hoped the Campus Police would forget about, the registration you never completed, and last, but certainly not least, that gawd-awful six o'clock alarm.

I really shouldn't be complaining. Actually, I'm quite happy to return to the home-front battleground of school and work after the "restful" New Mexico vacation I just returned from.

I left for Las Cruces, New Mexico after finishing my last final on December 14, eager to see the old friends and scenery I had missed since high school. Wired to the max, I hopped into my trusty VW Bug and didn't stop driving 'til I saw the sun rise over the Organ Mountains of Southern New Mexico. I cruised into the sleepy town of Las Cruces and stumbled into the home of my good friend, Burt McClure.

My first three days in town, I slept for about twenty hours, my Bug got mangled by some drunk kid in his daddy's Cadillac, and the store Burt worked at got broken into and his younger brother got hauled off to jail for sheep rustling.

My fourth day in town, Burt, his girlfriend, and I went out drinking. We drank Margaritas and Jack Daniels on into the night, when I finally got sick and passed out in Burt's car. While I was out, Burt got into a fight with some crazy guy from a Southwestern motorcycle gang called the Banditos. Still totally unconscious, I was taken back to Burt's house and dumped on a couch right in front of the big picture window in Burt's front room where the barroom fight continued. The other guy was now firing 45 caliber rounds through Burt's front window and Burt was returning with fire from his 38 snub nose.

Actually, I didn't find out about any of this 'til about 5 a.m. after Burt and the other guy got hauled off and I awoke to the sight of walls riddled with bullet holes. Burt's mom and his girlfriend were still around cleaning up the broken glass, and they told me what had gone on during my drunken sleep. Later, while they were busy getting Burt out of jail, (fortunately, neither Burt nor the other guy was hit), I was down at the local mechanic's watching him put the finishing touches on my new rear axel.

By the time I got back to Burt's with my newly-repaired Bug, Burt was back. We had one last smoke together. Then, I wished him and his girlfriend well and headed back down the road to sunny California without looking back once. . . . . On second thought, Foothill's not such a bad place to be.

Student works last farm

By CHRIS HANSEN

Carla Molinari has lived on a farm all her life. During the week, she picks and delivers produce, and on weekends rises at three or four in the morning to attend the Saturday Farmer's Market. All this would probably not seem very unusual if Carla were a resident of a small Midwestern town, or even of the Sacramento Valley, but the Molinari farm is located in Mountain View at 1851 Charleston. It is the last farm in the area.

Once, the Bay Area was dotted with small farms; a time some residents still remember. Gradually, the electronics and other industries took over. Farming families sold out to the corporations, under the pressure of rising property taxes, and corporate developments suddenly became neighbors.

Carla Molinari's grandparents started one of the small farms almost forty years ago, after immigrating to the United States from Italy. It has been in the family ever since, and, as Carla puts it: "My grandmother will never sell. She's too stubborn." Carla's parents run the farm today, with help from Carla, her three younger sisters, and an aunt. They farm seven acres of land.

During the school year, Carla attends Foothill, and also puts in four or five hours a day in farming chores. During the summer, she spends the entire day working on the farm. A "day" on the farm is not the nine to five job most of us are used to; it begins at 6:00 a.m. and ends at 10:00 p.m.. The Molinari family gets no vacation, Carla says. For as long as she can remember, the family has only tried to take one day off, so that they could visit Santa Cruz. They returned early.

When asked if Carla feels that being raised on a farm deprived her of anything, she answers, "No." She explains that farming is very hard work, but says she could never live in tract housing or work at a desk-bound job. She is not sure if she will take over the farm eventually. Her classes at Foothill are a way for her to explore different interests, without having to decide immediately what she wants to do.

In the meantime, there is plenty to do on the farm. The family does not sell produce directly from the farm itself, so deliveries must constantly be made. The Garden Basket and Sunnymont stands on El Camino feature Molinari fruits and vegetables.

It was through the process of selling the family's produce that Carla met associates of San Francisco's DeYoung museum, who were interested in doing a display about the Molinaris. They asked if they could visit the farm to take pictures, and Carla agreed.

When the museum crew arrived, they had tape recorders and cameras. They spent a day interviewing and photographing the family. When the exhibit was ready, the family drove to San Francisco to see it, and, according to Carla, the information presented was all very accurate. The only surprise, she said, was "How big the pictures were."

Carla cannot conceive of a day when the farm is sold. But, as the last farm amid a jungle of electronics companies, its future seems precarious. Both Carla's grandfather and Carla's father were crowned "Farmer of the Year" at the San Francisco Farmer's Market, and it is certainly possible that one day Carla or one of her sisters will take over the farm and receive the award too; if, that is, it manages to survive.

FOOTHILL COLLEGE STUDENT HANDBOOK

Published by Associated Students of Foothill College

Yes, there really is a student government on campus. No, it does not drain oceans, tame tigers, empty bars, fix tickets or move mountains; its budget does not allow it. But, it does exist to serve student needs and concerns and to represent students' views to the college administration.

CAMPUS COUNCIL (STUDENT GOVERNMENT)

Managing the affairs of ASFC is the Campus Council, the official name of student government. Major officers of the Association and Council are: President, Vice-President of Administration, Vice-President of Activities and six senators, who are elected by the general student body (voting is not restricted to student body card holders, but all ASFC officers must have this card). Appointed officers are: Directors of Mass Communications, Finance, Elections, Campus Center, Activities-Publicity, Parliamentarian and Secretary. Membership in the Council also includes club representatives, one rep for every five campus clubs.

Among the Council's major responsibilities are: providing and administering a program of activities and services for students, adopting and supervising the annual AFSC budget, allocating funds for new programs/projects, granting club charters, appointing officers and students on campus-wide committees, and sharing in the development of college policies and activities.

The goal of the Council is to give a voice to all students at Foothill, enabling them to become an integral part of the college community. It can be effective if you, the student, gives it input and direction. The Council needs your ideas, opinions, pet projects, causes and grievances so that it is not guessing at what you want, but knows what you want.

CAMPUS CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

CAMPUS CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS THERE'S A CLUB FOR EVERYBODY

Foothill College has one of the largest and most successful club programs of any community college in the state. Our clubs are also one of the most important student government programs.

There are thirty clubs and organizations on campus and they change as needs change. Some cater to recreational needs such as the Backpacking Club and Ski Club. In these groups, students can share cost of trips, transportation, food and equipment or raise money to reduce costs further, thus making these activities more affordable. Also, people just beginning in these sports can learn and avoid mistakes through the more experienced club members.

There are career clubs such as JADHA, Dental Assistants, Animal Health, Fashion Merchandizing where members can engage in activities that further their career goals. Students who are new to the United States and have difficulties with language and culture can run across someone who comes from the same background by joining the International Club, Vietnamese Club, Filipinos for a Progressive Community and, at the same time, help Americans understand their culture.

Hobbyists who want to meet people of similar interests, such as karate or weaving or fencing can join the Karate Club, the Arachnae Weavers or the Fencing Club. For students with political interests, there is the Law Forum and the Greenpeace Club. The latter group also runs an educational and fund raising campaign, hoping to keep whales from becoming dog food.

Some past and gone clubs include the Aqua Owls, Circle K, Student Protest League, David Harris for Congress Club, Young Democrats, Young Republicans, Ecology Club, FOSH (rally), and Flying Club. They are gone, but that does not mean forever.

If you would like to join a club that does not exist, don't let that worry you. Let us know in C-31 (Student Activities Building) and we shall start one.

All clubs have mail boxes in C-31. Leave your name and phone number in the club's box and members will call you. Or, just show up for a club's meeting. Club notices of meetings, usually Tuesday and/or Thursday during College Hour (1:00-2:00), will be found in Footprints (Daily Bulletin) and posters.

The following clubs and organizations are currently on the active list:

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA-(AGS) - Foothill's Honor Society. Membership is based on invitations to students with a 3.2 GPA. This club's on-campus activities each quarter include book exchanges, arts and crafts fairs, and Bake Sales. Their off-campus or social activities include beach and ski trips, parties and various other activities.

ANIMAL HEALTH TECHNICIANS - For students planning careers in veterinary services. Club activities include trade conventions, helping members find jobs in the field.

ARACHNAE WEAVERS - Hobby club for students interested in arts and crafts of weaving: learning how to use looms, spinning wheels and other old style weaving equipment.

ASIAN AMERICAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION - Building a more cohesive and understandable relationship between Asians and Asian minorities. The main objective of the organization is personal sensitivity.

BACKPACKING CLUB - This club does what the name implies: last quarter members went on trips to Big Basin, Butano, Trinity Alps and Death Valley. They try to teach skills that would be helpful such as first aid, map reading, how to pack for a trip and how to set up camp. Rock climbing is another major activity of the club.

CLAYBODIES - For those people who have a special interest in ceramics.

DEAD AIR CLUB - Is for those associated with campus radio station KFJC at 89.7 on the FM dial. Meets Wednesday evenings at 6:30. Information in M-1.

DENTAL ASSISTANTS - Open to dental assisting students. They give plaque control instructions and free dental x-rays to anyone who needs them.

DISABLED STUDENTS UNION - To aid and offer understanding for the disabled, and to provide counseling to all disabled students.

EOPSA - The purpose of the Extended Opportunity Program and Student Services Association of Foothill College is to establish student participation in program development, insure the development of learning skills, provide opportunities for the development of student leadership, organization techniques, evaluation skills, promote mutual awareness, understanding and growth among faculty, students and staff, and secure the benefits of equal educational opportunity for ourselves and all other students regardless of age, sex, ethnicity or religious beliefs.

EXOTIC FILMS CLUB - Great for students interested in script writing, set direction, special effects, animation and other filmmaking techniques.

FASHION MERCHANDISING CLUB - For students interested in career fields in modeling, textile industry and clothing retail merchandising.

FENCING CLUB - For beginners and experienced fencers. Advisor is current member of U.S. Olympic Fencing Team.

FILIPINOS FOR A PROGRESSIVE COMMUNITY-(PFPC) - A Filipino Student Organization at Foothill College.

FOOTHILL CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP - Strengthens the spiritual life of members by the study of the Bible, the claims of Jesus Christ, while promoting the general welfare of students.

GREENPEACE - A political and ecology organization running educational and money raising campaigns to assist in the international efforts of preservation of whales and other marine mammals. A highly successful Spring function was the club's "Save the Whales day".

HAWAIIAN CLUB - The purpose of this organization shall be one of service to the college and community. Promoting Hawaiian culture, such as dances and food is also a major activity of the club. Open to all students on campus.

INSIGHT PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB - "Insight" is intended to create an arena for the exchange of ideas and to promote a greater interest in photography.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB - To promote a better understanding of other people and countries among the students at Foothill College.

JADHA-(Junior American Dental Hygienists Association) - A student organization of the American Dental Hygienists Association. Eligibility for membership requires enrollment in the Dental Hygiene program at Foothill College.

KARATE CLUB - To promote the art of Karate; to demonstrate its effectiveness as a weapon of self-defense; and to teach interested students the skills of Karate.

LDSSA-(Latter Day Saints Students Association) - A club that meets twice a week during the college hour to discuss scripture reading and studies among members. The club is open to the general student body.

LAW FORUM - Membership is open to all students. The club sponsors political speakers, and discusses the current issues. Field trips are taken to court houses, institutions and seminars.

MECHA-(Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano De Aztlan) - Established to further the educational, social, economic and cultural opportunities of the Chicano community and to provide a training ground for future leaders of the Barrio.

ORNAMENTAL HORTICULTURE-(OH) - Its purpose is to supplement the learning experiences of OH by providing extra-curricular projects, opportunities and experience in the field of Ornamental Horticulture.

PRESS CLUB - Its purpose shall be to create an interest in mass communication at Foothill College through the campus newspaper, FOOTHILL SENTINEL.

PROGRESSIVE BLACK STUDENT ALLIANCE - Was established to promote a greater degree of unity and communication among the Black People at Foothill College and with the local Black communities.

SKI CLUB - Open to anybody who is interested in learning new ski techniques or in just getting together with others to snow ski.

VIETNAMESE CLUB-(VSC) - Was formed to provide a means of cohesion and adherence of the Vietnamese Students at Foothill College. This club was formed in the spirit of "IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH." It is open to all students who are interested in working toward the goals of the club.

WOMEN'S SOCCER CLUB - The purpose of the club is to promote women's sports on Foothill Campus. In doing so we allow anyone, even without experience, to play and enjoy it.

COMMUNICATIONS

CALENDAR OF EVENTS-Quarterly publication, listing scheduled student activities (at press time), academic calendar dates, hours/offices to remember, and Clubs/organizations and their meeting rooms. Campus groups wishing to list their events on calendar should contact Student Activities Office. Copies of calendar are available C-31, Campus Center, Bookstore, Library and Administration Building.

FOOTHILL FORECAST-is a bi-weekly bulletin issued on Thursdays by Joan Green of the Public Information Office, listing events, exhibits, awards, grants, and activities of general interest to faculty, staff, students and community. Look for it in the Administration Building near the telephone operators.

FOOTPRINTS-This is a Monday, Wednesday and Thursday college publication providing information for the day such as lectures, club meetings and athletic activities scheduled, deadline dates for various department applications, and general items of interest to Foothill students.

Copies of the Footprints are found in the Bookstore, Student Activities Building, Administration Building, and the Library.

KFJC-FM-89.7 on the dial, is totally student run under the direction of advisor Jack Hasing and instructor Doug Droese. Interested students take preliminary broadcasting courses, then in Broadcasting 98, elect a station manager who appoints the management staff.

KFJC presents varied progressive musical programming in addition to instructional, public service, and public affairs features.

SENTINEL-is the school newspaper published on Thursdays. Students who work on the paper choose the editor, and everyone involved works to report items of interest to college and community.

CAMPUS CENTER BOARD

Overseeing the functioning of the Campus Center is the Campus Center Board, composed of students (day and evening), faculty, classified staff and administrators. Major responsibilities of the Board include: determining policies for the Campus Center to insure its operation as an efficient service, reviewing financial reports, and reviewing all of the Center's units:

Food Services, including vending machines, Bookstore, Game Room, Fashion Boutique and Building Services.

The Board is responsible to the President of the College and to ASFC Campus Council for coordinating a Campus Center program consistent with policies of the College and Board of Trustees.

WELCOME BACK!

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

ASFC's ACTIVITIES, PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

ASFC sponsors a wide range of services, programs and activities for the aid, enlightenment and entertainment of all students.

Services include: Legal assistance (private attorney on campus), student emergency loan fund, vehicle aid and a discount program with twenty-five merchants in the community, from restaurants, auto service to leather goods and jewelry. In addition, a popular discount program is the Squaw Valley ski lift passes for $8.00 per day, any day of the week (regular cost: $14.00).

Assistance to clubs and community related organizations, no interest club loans, student handbook, Multicultural events, arts and crafts fairs, College Hour seminars and Ex-Offender program are some of the programs sponsored by ASFC. Funds also go to assisting KFJC (college radio station), Women's Center, Disability Students Union, Transportation Board and other special student projects.

Highlighting activities are the ASFC/FACES concert series, drawing big name attractions and huge audiences. Last year's series included: Shields and Yarnell, Leo Kottke, Ben Vereen, Art Garfunkle and Martin Mull. Big name entertainers are also slated for this year. Other activities include: College Hour Specials (music, comedy, lectures, and special street theaters), film series, lecture series and dances.

BOARDS/COMMITTEES OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The three major branches of student government are Administration, Organization and Activities. Each branch oversees activities/programs within its area and recommends to Campus Council such legislation, policies and codes necessary to implement its respective program.

The Administrative Board of Directors coordinates activities of Mass Communications, Finance, Elections and Campus Center. The Organizations Board of Directors (OBD) is the overseer of all clubs. And, the Activities Board of Directors is responsible for Publicity, Social Affairs and College Hour programming. Within each of these specific areas, there is a Committee functioning and seeking students-at-large membership—you.

ASFC's BUDGET

This year's ASFC budget is projected at $35,000 with major source of income coming from student body card sales—the ASFC/Co-Curricular Card (Photo I.D.) Income from card sales is equally divided between ASFC and Co-Curricular Council.

Budget allocations go for a wide variety of activities, programs and services, noted below. In addition, there is money available to fund new programs/services that students or clubs may recommend to Campus Council. That is how Child Care Center, Student Evaluation of Faculty Handbook and Legal Assistance, for example, got started on campus.

Copies of the Budget are available to interested students in C-31.

COLLEGE-WIDE COMMITTEES

Vital to the functioning of ASFC and the college is student participation in the decision making process on college-wide committees. Campus Council, who appoints student members to these committees needs dedicated students here, representing all segments and ages of our students population.

These committees, composed of student, faculty, classified staff and administration representatives, are:

CURRICULUM COMMITTEE—Determines curricular matters such as approving/deleting courses and curricular programs; meets weekly on Thursday at 11:00 a.m.

IMPROVEMENT OF INSTRUCTION—Standing committee of Curriculum Committee to promote better methodology of instruction; reviews and recommends adoption of innovative teaching projects.

TRAFFIC COMMITTEE—Considers traffic and parking problems; meets on call.

STUDENT-FACULTY RELATIONS COMMITTEE—Considers special concerns to promote better student-faculty relations such as faculty evaluation, grading policy; meets on call.

FLINT CENTER POLICY BOARD—District body that makes policies for usage of Flint Center—district theater located on De Anza College Campus; theater of ASFC's major concerts; meets on call.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION COMMITTEE—Develops policies and procedures relative to campus affirmative action program; reviews implementation of policies; meets on call.

SPECIAL SELECTION COMMITTEE—Functions as needed to interview candidates for administrative and division chair positions.

DISTRICT COUNCIL—Advisory body representing Foothill and De Anza colleges to the Chancellor, Dr. Tom Fryer; discusses district-wide concerns on policy and problem areas; student body presidents of both colleges are members of this Council, but they do seek student input and guidance on district matters.

Students interested in serving on these college-wide committees should contact Neil MacKenzie.

STUDENT MEMBER OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Student input and representation has always been involved in the policy making process of the Board of Trustees of the Foothill/De Anza Community College District. But, beginning July 1, 1978, as enacted by state law, community colleges are to have a student member sitting on Boards of Trustees.

To implement this law, the day, evening and off-campus student governments of Foothill and De Anza Colleges have joined forces to establish regulations governing the selection of the student member of our Board of Trustees. Part of these regulations include the establishment of a Review Board of representatives of the student governments to select a student member from the district and reporting system between student governments and the student member.

This year's student member is Shirley Sheppard, student from Foothill College's evening student association. To convey any of your concerns or recommendations to the Board, contact Shirley directly or your ASFC officers.

Students interested in serving on the Board of Trustees for the 1978/79 term should contact ASFC officers. Watch for announcements; selection of Student Board Members will be made in the Spring.

CCCSGA

ASFC is a member of the California Community College Student Government Association (CCCSGA), a state-wide organization for promoting the welfare of community college students and AREA 6, a unit of this organization, serving the Bay Area colleges. Both at the state and area levels, this organization works at providing an exchange program among colleges of ideas and programs and advocates needed legislation for students.

This state organization holds two conferences a year, and AREA 6, monthly meetings among various colleges. Students interested in state wide concerns and participation in these state/area meetings should contact Neil MacKenzie.

Welcome to Winter Quarter at Foothill College! We believe you've chosen well to decide to be with us this year. Those of us on the staff of course think that this is the best college anywhere and we will do all in our power to convince you TOO that this is the case! Recent events in California have changed our program somewhat but we believe that the quality of your learning is still at an all time high. You will be paying some fees where you did not formerly do so and some former fees are higher. At least for this year, however, most of our college credit program is in tact and still without tuition. The state legislature will have a hard look at that issue during this year so along with you we will watch the newspapers.

The Community College is somewhat different than four year colleges in the great variety of courses and student service offerings. As you review your schedule of classes such areas as Semiconductor Technology, Respiratory Therapy, and Commercial Music catch ones' eyes along with the traditional Mathematics, History and English. Our student development center in the Administration Building can help you find a job, select a career, receive health counseling, be tested for occupational interests, secure units for your job, gain financial help and many other services. We hope you will take full advantage of these services.

And of course not all learning takes place in the classroom. Service in student government, clubs, athletic teams, plays, singing groups, and many more teach lessons that are lifelong in nature. Our hope is that you will enjoy some of THESE lessons, too.

James S. Fitzgerald
President

CAMPUS COUNCIL (Cont. from Page 1)

The Council's meetings are open to all. It meets on Thursdays, starting at 2:00 p.m. and lasts until 4:00 or 5:00 p.m. — depending on the cause of the day — at the Council Chambers in C-31 (Student Activities Building). So, the student government officers have offices and mail boxes in C-31. So, if you are in San Francisco and see a great street theater group, get its number and drop it to your officers—a line; if it can be arranged, we shall have the group on campus for a College Hour performance. If you want more political lectures or social commentaries, tell us and we shall set it up. You hear of a piece of legislation in Sacramento that affects community colleges, let us know. You want Backgammon tables in the Campus Center, let us know. Do you need more information on Health Services, Legal assistance, housing or want help setting up a car pool system, have any ideas on improvement of Food Services? Let us know.

CAMPUS CENTER

There's a lot to see and do at the Campus Center. Student organizations, food, bookstore, relaxation, entertainment, meetings, time with friends—are all part of the activities and services of this three-building complex.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BUILDING

This building, also referred to as "C-31", is headquarters for campus activities, special student services and Campus Police. Offices located here are:

CAMPUS INFORMATION CENTER—on activities, room reservations, travel, discount program.

Student Activities Staff
Student Government (ASFC)
Co-Curricular Council
Evening Student Council (FACES)
Student Accounts Manager
Legal Assistance
Housing

CAMPUS POLICE—on security matters, parking permits, lost and found, vehicle aid.

SPECIAL FACILITIES—

Council Chambers/Meeting Room
Publicity/Poster-Making Room
Club Mail Boxes and Lockers

KSTORE

Items and services available at the Bookstore include: required textbooks, classroom supplies, paperbacks, sundries, gifts and novelties, T-shirts, greeting cards, photo processing, xerox machine, ski discount passes and check cashing (ten dollars above amount of purchase). The Bookstore also operates an annex store at the College's Mountain View Center—serving all off-campus locations (Mountain View, Palo Alto Center and Foothill South).

CAMPUS CENTER BUILDING

Housed in the "Center" are food services, lounge areas, restrooms, study areas, chess tables, pianos, private dining rooms, meeting rooms and the scene for concerts, dances, lectures and club events. Other attractions include the Game Room, featuring pool tables, pinball and other game machines and The Owl and The Pussycat, selling the latest in fashion merchandise. Locations of these services and facilities are:

	Upper Level
Lounges		Chess Tables
Game Room		Piano
The Owl and the Pussycat		Restrooms
	Lower Level
Owl's Nest (coffee shop)		Dining Patios
Cafeteria		Private Dining/Meeting Rooms
Main Dining Room		Vending Machines

CAMPUS CENTER MALL

Outside this building complex is the Campus Center Mall, a popular people-gathering place and location for arts and crafts shows, concerts, club bake sales, petition-signing and "Hyde Park"—the open speech platform. Most of the activities in the Mall occur during College Hour—Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Public telephones and bulletin boards are also found in this area.

CO-CURRICULAR COUNCIL

Co-Curricular activities is still another dimension of student life on campus. This program offers a wide array of choices for the participant or spectator. Students may earn units in some of these activities linked with classroom instruction.

The program of Co-Curricular Council includes:

INTRAMURAL SPORTS AND CO-RECREATION ACTIVITIES

Gene Hawley x355 G51a

A wide variety of sports are open to all students during College Hour, Tuesdays and Thursdays, and on Co-Rec Night, Wednesdays in the Physical Education complex. Other activities include teams competing with neighboring colleges and annual ski trip to Squaw Valley.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Bill Abbey x222 G53d

Tennis and swimming teams consistently making marks at state level as well as taking league championship titles, women's tennis teams winning league title (every year), swimmers internationally recognized for their achievement, gymnastics team taking third place in league, men's basketball in league play-offs are some of the highlights of our teams and athletes during the past year. Successes also came to our other competitive sports: Football, water polo, cross country, soccer, wrestling, baseball, golf, women's volley ball, track and field and softball.

RALLY COMMITTEE

John Williamson x283 C31f

With cheer and song leaders, this committee coordinates game and rally activities as well as Football Festival Week.

SENTINEL (College Student Newspaper)

Herm Scheiding x261 M24

This weekly publication has consistently received recognition as one of the top college newspapers in the state.

KFJC-FM, 89.7 (College Radio Station)

KFJC provides students the facilities to learn all phases of broadcasting, both academically and vocationally within their non-commercial, progressive format. Emphasis is on writing and production of programs, and daily operation of the station, as well as constant improvement of services offered the listening community.

These activities are organized and sponsored by the Co-Curricular Council, comprised of an equal number of students, faculty representatives from the various Co-Curricular areas. This Council works together with ASFC in promoting joint efforts, including the combined ASFC Co-Curricular Student Body Card.

DRAMA AND MUSIC

The drama and music departments present a wide range of programs on campus and in the community during the year. Programs include such critically acclaimed groups as drama performers, Fanfairs, chorale, orchestra, concert band, jazz band, pep band and concert dancers.

STUDENT SERVICES

STUDENT SERVICES

The following student services are listed alphabetically, with the appropriate information for student use of those services and offices.

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION — In compliance with Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments, the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972 (Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, it is the policy of the Foothill-De Anza Community College District not to discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, creed, national origin, sex, age, marital or parental or physical handicap in all of its educational and employment programs and activities, its policies, practices and procedures.

It is further the policy of this district to take affirmative action in all its programs and in all aspects of employment where persons with physical handicap of a particular race or sex are under-utilized or under-represented.

Nilo A. Sarmiento, District Affirmative Action and Employment Officer, has the overall responsibility of ensuring that the provisions of Title IX, Title VII and Section 504 are complied with in their entirety.

However, since full and continued compliance with the law is ultimately the responsibility of both students and District Staff alike, concerns over violations of the law should be brought to his attention so that appropriate corrective measures can be taken. Refer all concerns to:

Affirmative Action Office
Foothill-De Anza Community College
District
12345 El Monte Road
Los Altos Hills, CA. 94022
Tel: (415) 948-8590, Ext. 528

BOOKS, SUPPLIES AND SUNDRIES—(x308) The College Bookstore, part of Campus Center complex, sells required textbooks, classroom supplies, paperbacks, sundries, gifts, novelties, T-shirts, photo processing, greeting cards and discount Squaw Valley ski lift tickets. If funds are available, you may also cash a check up to $10.00 above amount of purchase. A xerox machine for student use is located at the Bookstore.

CAREER CENTER—(x229) Located in the Student Development Center, Ruth Morales can supply you with all kinds of information for career decision making and other aspects of educational and vocational planning and successful job-hunting.

CHILD CARE CENTER—(x500 or 941-7384) The Child Care Center is at the north end of parking lot C. Under the direction of Nancy Clark and staffed by over ten men and women, all holding either C.C.C. permits or State of California credentials. The Center can accommodate 100 children per hour. The ages of the children range from six months to fourteen years. Special arrangements can be made to transport a child to and from a public school.

The Center is open Monday through Thursday from 7:30 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. On Fridays the hours are 7:30 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Fees, paid weekly, are determined on a sliding scale depending on each family's gross monthly income and the number of members in the family. The student-parent must enroll in a parent education class (integrated into the parent's class schedule and given 2 units credit), plus participate in two hours per week at the Center. Children should be registered prior to the quarter. Places are available on a first come first served priority basis.

CONTINUING EDUCATION—(x254) The Office of Continuing Education administers on-campus programs primarily after 5:00 p.m. However, Saturday classes, off-campus classes, Continuing Education for Women, the SEA program, the CIS program, Summer sessions and the Child Care Center are also administered by the Office of Continuing Education and are open to everyone.

Assistant division administrators have been selected to serve evening and off-campus needs. Students wishing more information concerning Continuing Education classes should consult "Administration."

COOPERATIVE EDUCATION (WORK EXPERIENCE)—(x232) If you are presently working part or full-time you may be eligible to earn up to 4 units of college credit for "learning" on your job. The Foothill Cooperative Education program interviews students to qualify and establish a "work-learning" program for the student. For more details please contact our office in the Student Development Center.

COUNSELING—(x237) The counseling program at Foothill College provides a full range of services and trained professional counselors in the following areas:

Academic Counseling — The counseling staff provides information and assistance to students in planning their educational program. Counselors are available to assist students in planning for:

—A.A. or A.S. Degree at Foothill College
—A.A. or A.S. Degree at other community colleges or proprietary schools.

—Transfer program to a four-year institution or program for job up-grading and/or personal enrichment.

Career Counseling — In conjunction with the Career Center, counselors can assist students in making first career, career change, or life style decisions. This can involve such things as:

- Self-Assessment; Prioritizing
  - Testing and interpretation
  - Value clarification, assertiveness training
  - Occupational Search
  - Research; Consultation
  - Job visitation; Job attainment
  - Resume writing
  - Interviewing techniques and practice
  - Reinforcement counseling

- Individual or Group counseling
  - Marital or Family counseling
  - Bio-feedback training
  - Staff/student consultations
  - Referral to off-campus agencies
  - Crisis intervention
  - Health counseling

DENTAL SERVICES—(x335 or 948-4659) Foothill Dental Hygiene Clinic is located in the Health Science area, room H4. Eligibility: Open to anyone Hours: 9—5 Mon—Fri (Call for information and appointments 10—4 p.m.) All appointments are in the morning, Mon—thur.

Services: Cleaning $5
Full mouth x-ray $6
Bite Wing x-ray $3
Fluoride treatment $1

To have dental x-rays taken at the clinic, it is necessary for the patient to have a dentist: a written or telephone prescription of specific x-rays is needed, and name and address to mail x-rays for diagnosis. We do not provide diagnoses, fillings, or other dental services.

DISABLED STUDENTS PROGRAM (On-Campus)—(x242) This program consists of special instruction, special services and counseling.

Offered are: Orientation and Mobility and Optacon Training for the blind; Adaptive P.E. classes for all disabled students.

Some of the special services include equipment loan—cassette tape recorders, electric wheelchairs, braille writers, talking calculators, M.C.M., etc. Van transportation is available to severely disabled students, and special parking on campus is available. Interpreters, readers and notetakers may be hired as needed.

Counseling services include referral information, priority registration, academic and personal counseling.

DUPLICATING AND POSTER SERVICE—(x282) For student clubs and organizations, duplicating services are available in Student Activities Building and "quick-copy" services in Administration Building. The student-operated publicity department offers inexpensive poster/sign services. Orders may be placed and picked up in the Student Activities Building.

EMERGENCY CAR AID—(x313,314) This service is provided by Campus Police, with support funds from ASFC. It includes battery jumping and help if you lock yourself out of your car.

EMERGENCY MESSAGES—(x240) Telephone and other messages cannot be delivered to students, except in cases of extreme emergency. In such cases, call Campus Police at extension 313 or 314.

FINANCIAL AID—(x245) Foothill College maintains a financial Aid Office and Staff, which are responsible for processing applications; awarding financial assistance to needy students; and, counseling students of available methods to meet educational costs.

Financial Aid programs, such as loans, grants, and work/study were developed to assist full and half-time students complete a post-secondary college educational objective by removing financial barriers.

Age should not deter you from submitting a financial aids application, if you are unable to meet the cost of attending college.

FOOD SERVICES—(x265) Food Services are available in Owl's Nest (coffee shop serving coffee/snacks, breakfast, lunch and dinner), and Cafeteria (serving coffee/snacks and lunch), both located in the Campus Center. There are vending machines in Campus Center, Forum Building and P.E. Concession area. In addition, food catering service is available for special events.

HEALTH SERVICES—(x243) Health counselor Barbara Hensley can help if you incur an injury on campus or feel illness coming on. Pregnancy tests, blood pressure readings, T.B. tests and general health counseling are available. Information is also available on low-cost medical care.

HOUSING—(x282) Student Activities office maintains a Housing Bulletin Board with rental notices as given by nearby residents and students. Arrangements may include rooms, apartments, houses to rent/share or room and board in exchange for work.

ISC (INDIVIDUAL STUDY CENTER)—(x444) The Individual Study Center, located in Semans Library, offers students and instructors an exciting learning environment. The ISC is for you if you want

1. to take self-paced, individualized courses;
2. to receive free, personalized tutoring in any college course or subject;
3. to supplement or complete course assignments by using video-tapes, audio programs, slides, etc.;
4. to study your course assignments with instructors, paraprofessionals, and new learning materials always available;
5. to produce your own instructional programs by taking "Update" courses.

In the ISC, you will find tutors, teachers and staff whose only desire is to aid and further your learning experience. The ISC is for everybody!

Enjoy your learning experience in all areas of the ISC:

- TUTORIAL CENTER
- LEARNING CENTER
- INSTRUCTIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- TAP PROGRAM
- MATH LAB

The ISC strives to express the Foothill College educational philosophy, "Educational Opportunity for ALL," by moving towards a goal of "Education for EACH."

JOB PLACEMENT CENTER—(x234) The Center assists currently enrolled students and alumni with their employment needs. The Center provides:

- Part-time, full-time and temporary job openings called in daily by employers and posted on the job board;
- Provides civil service, overseas and summer employment information;
- Guidance in resume writing, job searching tips and interviewing techniques;
- Computerized job placement through Bay Area Cooperative Education Clearinghouse (BACEC). Students using this service are requested to enroll in Work Experience, receiving college credit and pay while on the job.

The interviewing staff includes representatives from the State Employment Development (EDD) and BACEC offices, available Monday—Friday, 8:00 a.m.—4:00 p.m. and Wednesday, 5:00 p.m.—8:00 p.m., located in the Student Development Center.

LEGAL ASSISTANCE—(x282) Sponsored by ASFC, free legal consultation is available on campus by private attorney. Set up appointment with Mrs. Thacher in Student Activities Building.

LOST AND FOUND—(x313,314) "Lost and found" items should be brought to (or picked up) at Campus Police Desk. Found items will be retained for 31 days and disposed of according to State law.

MULTICULTURAL RELATIONS AND SPECIAL SERVICES—EOPS—(x205) This office is designed to provide comprehensive student support services in specialized areas pertaining to ethnic minority, financially and educationally disadvantaged. The services include but are not limited to:

1. Referral Service: We seek to facilitate communication and understanding between staff, students and community through the normal administrative process of the college.
2. Counseling: The ethnic and/or professional background of the staff seeks to augment the existing Counseling Services of the college. Emphasis is placed on helping the student with problems that may be encountered during enrollment.
3. Tutoring: Tutoring service is coordinated through the Individual Studies Center (Library). In addition to these tutorial services, student employment as tutors is also available in a given subject.
4. Financial Aid: Work-Study jobs may be available. Emergency loans of up to $50 can be provided with eligibility met. Textbook loans can be provided once need has been established. Transportation is available through the Transit bus on a limited basis. Grants and Scholarships are often handled by Multicultural staff who act as a clearinghouse for persons or agencies wanting a recommended specific type of student.
5. Special Projects: Staff frequently initiates and/or coordinates on- and off-campus community outreach projects on a year-round basis.

For students seeking services, we advise filing applications with Financial Aids Office and with the Multicultural Relations and Special Services.

NOTARY PUBLIC—This service is available in the Student Development Center.

SPACE AND EQUIPMENT RESERVATION—(x282) Student clubs and organizations wishing to reserve college space, equipment to provide food for their events need to contact the Student Activities Office. Allow sufficient time to process application forms.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES—(x281, 283) The Student Activities Program at Foothill College seeks to create an "out-of-class" environment that provides a total educational, recreational and social experience for parties involved. The office staff, located in the Student Activities Building, assists individuals and organizations in planning and coordinating activity projects and events and provides leadership training seminars. Special services of office include: Camp Information Center on activities, room reservations, travel and discount programs; scheduling events, club mailboxes, publicity department housing and Student Accounts Office.

VETERANS OFFICE—(x238) This office functions as the veteran's voice with the Veterans Administration. Besides signing the veteran up for the G.I. Bill and assuring prompt and correct payments, the personnel in this office assist with any sort of problem: Medical, educational, tutoring, personal, etc. Veterans Benefits Counselors are on duty weekdays and every evening until 6:00 p.m. (Friday until 4:00 p.m.) They care and are there to help the veteran succeed.

WOMEN'S CENTER—(x290) The Women's Center, "A Room of Our Own," is located in L-7 and is open daily from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. It is staffed by students and provides coffee and tea, a small lending library, information on community resources, films on women, and information on courses offered at Foothill and other colleges dealing with women.

"A Room of Our Own" is a drop-in center where all are encouraged to come and relax, join rap groups or gain information about community and college events for women.

Zelditch heads UN youth chapter

By CHRIS MATHIAS

The Youth of the World is the United Nations action theme for 1979, and heading the Northern California Project chapter is Foothill's own Bernice Zelditch, an English Instructor.

Each year the United Nations chooses a topic of international scope and interest and for 1979, the "International Year of the Child" campaign is one that Zelditch is eager to contribute to.

Mrs. Zelditch, who teaches children's literature, has had a great concern for children for as long as she can remember, and when offered the opportunity to become Northern California's Officer from the U.N., she jumped at the chance.

While the international aim is for the general benefit of children, mostly through medical/health plans in developing nations, Zelditch has some more specific regional goals to implement. "Locally, improving child care centers is one of our aims in the near future," she stated. Zelditch also noted that Santa Clara County has a "very high child abuse rate" and providing counseling and care is one area where "we could help."

In addition to her administrative responsibilities, Zelditch has given presentations and organized exhibits for and about children. Also, as a result of her involvement with the International Year of the Child, Foothill College was named United Nations Reference Center for Northern California.

Zelditch believes that children "are the hope of the world," and that more emphasis needs to be put on their well being. "The United States might very well be producing illiterate, uncultured boors," she said, referring to the recent cutbacks in education in the areas of art, music, and literature.

As a collector of children's art and literature, Zelditch has travelled extensively throughout

The 1978-79 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges will carry the names of fifty Foothill College students who have been selected as some of the country's most outstanding campus leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of these students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

They are among students selected from more than 700 institutions of higher learning in all fifty states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1966.

Owls win Chabot Tournament as Hentley earns tourney MVP

By MICHAEL LEMKE

Foothill captured first place in the Chabot Tournament by defeating Chabot 64-53 in the championship game.

Tony Hentley, the Owl's lightning quick 5'8" guard, was named the tournament's most valuable player, in addition to being the scoring leader for the three day tournament held December 28-30 in Hayward.

The Owls downed Reedley 72-64 and Consumnes River 61-59 before facing Chabot in the finals. Scott Stewart, a 6'4" forward, was named to the all-tournament team along with Hentley for the Owls.

With an 8-4 record heading into conference play, including four straight triumphs, coach Jerry Cole's squad appears ready to challenge for the title in the tough GGC.

"Right now, we've been playing pretty well. We've been bothered by injuries, Rufus Mark is out with an ankle injury, we also had a bout with the flu, but we're over that and should be in pretty good shape," comments Cole, who led his squad to a second place finish last season.

The Owls four losses have all come on the road against ranked teams, making the Owls record look even more impressive. Foothill has lost to Sacramento, ranked 13th at the time. Cypress ranked number two, Contra Costa ranked 14th, and Monterey ranked number three among small schools.

Guard Tony Hentley

Foothill took second place in the Sequoias Tournament held December 14-16, losing to Cypress in the finals. Against Cypress, the Owls faced a 7'3" center and 6'11" forward, a formidable task for anyone. Hentley also made the all tournament squad at the Sequoias Tournament.

Foothill hosts College of San Mateo, the first GGC home game, on Friday, January 5, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Cole will start 6'8" Ken Billman at center, Stewart and 6'5" Mike Brewer at forward, and 6' Glenn Grant at guard along with Hentley.

Grant and Billman, newcomers to the squad this year, are playing extremely well, along with veterans Stewart, Brewer, and Hentley, the squads leading scorer.

According to Cole, Chuck Boyle, a member of last years team, joins the squad and becomes eligible for the remainder of the season.

"We're not quite as strong depth-wise as we were last year, but will be all right if we just stay away from injuries," admits Cole.

Forward Mike Brewer

Cole expects CCSF and Laney to battle for the title with a host of other schools right behind them, making another very balanced year at the conference.

Cole prefers to keep a low profile over his talented squad yet the other conference schools will be on the lookout for the Owls.

Matmen anticipate strong finish

The Owls wrestling team returns to action January 4 at SJCC. "If we have everyone healthy, the result of the match should come right down to the heavyweights," speculates second year Owl coach, Dan Boyett.

Foothill is 3-1, with both losses coming to highly rated GGC foes, Diablo Valley and Chabot. SJCC is the third ranked GGC team, followed closely by Foothill.

On January 14, the Owls host College of San Mateo in the last home wrestling match of the year.

Steve Robello, the most valuable player on the Owl football team, is the only undefeated wrestler with a 3-0 record. Brian Ward wrestling at 190, Ted Novak at 167, 118 pounder Lyle Wilkes, and team Captain Gary Haraguichi at 126, all have winning records, according to Boyett.

Rusty Hancock, a 134 pounder from Oklahoma, and 158 pounder Chip Hastings become eligible for the second half of the season, causing Boyett to say: "We should be a much stronger team the second half of the season, and for the tournaments at the end of the year.

Gridders honored at banquet

By MICHAEL LEMKE

Concluding a successful 5-4-1 football season, Foothill held an awards banquet honoring all conference linebacker Steve Robello as the teams most valuable player.

Defensive back Doug Boyett was named the outstanding freshman, offensive guard Chris Graham the outstanding offensive lineman, defensive tackle Mike Perko the outstanding defensive lineman, Phil Manoukian the outstanding linebacker award, tight end Craig Diggle the outstanding receiver award, Stu Pederson the outstanding defensive back award, defensive back Kory Pringle the Bill

Abbey award, and halfback Jeff Melenudo the offensive back award. Offensive tackle Louis Knight received a special coaches award.

ASFC POSITIONS OPEN

There are still four administrative positions open on the regular ASFC Student Council: Representative to the Curriculum Committee, ASFC Parliamentarian, Elections Director, and Experimental College Director. The ASFC is also looking for a secretary for the Student Council, which is a paid position.

Anyone interested in the Student Council positions should speak to Neil MacKenzie, Lizanne Verzie, Chip Tarrice, or pick up an application from Mrs. Thacher in C-31.

Foothill hosts tennis tournament

Tennis players are invited to enter the First Foothill College Class Tournament planned for January 27 and 28 and February 3 and 4 at the Los Altos Hills Campus and Gunn High School courts.

The Tournament organized by Foothill coaches Marlene Poletti and Tom Chivington is sanctioned by the Nor Cal Tennis Association.

Class levels will include Men's Singles C's and D's, Men's Doubles C's and D's, Women's Singles C's and D's, and Women's Doubles C's and D's.

Entries will be open from December 23 through January 13. An $8 fee will be charged for singles and $10 for double with checks payable to Foothill College.

The Tournament will be sponsored by the Foothill College Athletic Clubs.

Library houses free art exhibit

Foothill College's Hubert Seamen Library will house free art exhibit January 9 through February 1. The exhibit will feature the drawing of four artists: Jim Promessi, Scott Miller, Gary Wheeler and Vincent Falsetta.
