DOCUMENTARY — KFJC Broadcast House at Foothill Junior College has been awarded a grant-in-aid of $1000 by the National Association of Educational Broadcasters to aid in the production of a documentary series titled "Age of Thunder." Brian Conway (right), 19-year-old broadcasting major, has written and produced the documentary. Conway has chosen moments from history that "shook the world" as his theme for the series. Ken Clark (left), KFJC station manager, accepted the grant at a Washington D.C. convention.
