Two Honored At Foothill

Two Foothill College students were named to top mass communications posts for the fall semester, by the college board of communications.

They are Fred Kulick, Jr., new KFJC station manager, and Larry Stammer, Foothill Sentinel editor-in-chief.

Kulick, a speech and drama major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kulick, 876 Parks dr.,

Mountain View. Stammer, a journalism major, has served on the Sentinel the past year as assistant city editor and editor-in-chief. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stammer, 898 Amador st., Sunnyvale.

In other communications appointments, Art Kuzniewski, 422 Dana st., Mountain View, was named fall semester athletic news bureau editor. Kuzniewski is a physical education major.
