LOBO'S DEN

by HARRY CHAPMAN

Coach George Porter's Lobos are seeking their fourth win of the 1959 season after dropping a thriller to San Jose City College last Saturday in a tight 20-18 decision.

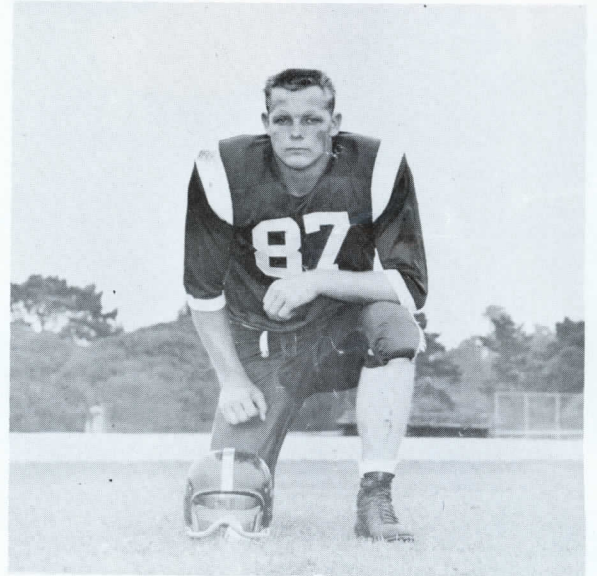

The Monterey Peninsula College Lobos will test the potency of an undefeated Foothill College ball club.

In their initial season of Coast Conference play, the Foothill Owls have been impressive, sporting a 3-0 so far. They have defeated Shasta, Marin, and Diablo Valley junior colleges.

Bill Abbey, head football coach at Foothill College, is well known to Lobo rooters. He was coach at MPC before making the switch to Foothill in 1957.

With experienced Owls such as fullback Jim Brown and quarterback Bill Munson controlling the backfield, Monterey will be forced to some alert ball play in the way of defense.

The Maroon and White machine has the running material in backs Dennis Jackson, Mike Ricketts, and Dennis Peavey along with powerhouse Eddie Esteban. Veteran quarterback Mike Mosolf will direct plays from scrimmage behind a wall of standouts such as Rex Giles, Dick Ogden, Bob Scardina, Willie Redmond and Wade

SID SWANSON, Lobo tackle, has been seeing action in several games. He was named "defensive standout" for his action in the Ventura game two weeks ago.

Selman, flanked by ends Larry Guilford and Benny Enea.

Coach Porter has been putting special emphasis on pass defense this week in his practice drill exercises. The defense in general has had a thorough going over and tonight's game should reap the results.

Lineman Dick Ogden and signal-caller Mike Mosolf have been selected as Lobo co-captains tonight for their excellent play against San Jose.

The Lobos, being somewhat upset over last Saturday's game, are more than likely to take it out on the visitors from Mountain View, which could produce a rather interesting sight here on MPC's turf tonight.

Lobo Club

Football is just one of the MPC activities vigorously supported by the growing group of local citizens who organized the Lobo Club a bit more than a year ago.

Led by President William Seawell and a fine group of officers, the Club continues to enlarge its activities. Social meetings are held monthly to hear both High School and College coaches discuss prospects for coming games and review those played. All Peninsula sports fans are welcome.

The Lobo Club last year presented the Athletic Department with movie camera equipment, which the Coaches are finding invaluable. The Club also presented many awards at the annual Football, Basketball, Baseball, Swimming and Track banquets.

Your membership is invited and welcome — contact any member for information or write P O. Box 983 for membership application.
