I want to support Jan Rindfleisch's application for exhibition funds at De Anza College for the following reasons.

1. Unusual care and thoughtfulness in the exhibition program result in unusual openness in content, techniques, disciplines and participatns.

2. Extraordinary outreach is designed into the exhibitions, with provocative ideas, which rely on the quality of the work presented to carry convincingly.

3. Complex thoughts, with layers of meanings and experiences and new awarenesses, are offered in such conservative packaging that parameters are extended in part because of the accessible and non-aggressive packaging.

4. There is unusual variety in the exhibitions. The work reflects significant research and is further expressed in a very energetic publications program.

I have followed the DeAnza exhibitions for many years, occasionally participating as a juror or consultant. I have observed how consistent they are in combining sound structure, accessible presentation and amazingly open ideas. Support for them is very worthwhile.

Sincerely,

Jo Hanson
